APPENDIX I (E).

Letter dated 23rd Edavam 1108, D. 2926/1108, from the Registrar of Village Panchayats to the Diwan Peishkar.

Subject.—Edavilangu Village office—holding of.

Ref.—Your D.440/1108, dated 16th February 1933.

The Tahsildar reports that the compound where the Village office building is situated is accessible to all. But the complaint of the Panchayat is that the building is not accessible to all. I think that, in the circumstances, it will be better to have the office shifted to a building accessible to all castes.

2. I, therefore, request that you will be so good as to do the needful in the matter.

APPENDIX I (F).

Letter dated 31st Edavam 1108, D. 4400/1108, from the Diwan Peishkar to the Registrar of Village Panchayats.

Subject.—Edavilangu Village office—holding of.

Ref.—Your letter dated 23rd Edavam 1108, D. 2926/1108.

I regret to inform you that the question of shifting the Village office to any other building cannot be considered now.

APPENDIX II (1).

(Vide answer to question No. 357.)

(1) Letter dated 20th August 1919, C. No. 7/95, from the Government Advocate and Law Officer.

I have the honour to bring to the Diwan's kind notice that it is now more than one year since I joined duty as Government Advocate and Law Officer. I am now drawing a salary of only Rs. 200 a month.

The work which I have to turn out as Government Advocate and Law Officer is done, in the Sister State of Travancore, by five Officers one Head Sirkar Vakil on Rs. 600, one additional Head Sirkar Vakil on Rs. 500 and three Assistant Sirkar Vakils on Rs. 250 each. I may also be permitted to state that the scale of pay prescribed for the Head Sirkar Vakil in Travancore State, is equal to that of a District Judge.

In these circumstances I request that the Government may be pleased to grant me the maximum pay of my appointment Rs. 300 a month.

If, however, the Government is not pleased to grant this prayer, I may at least be allowed to draw the annual increment of Rs. 20 which I am entitled to get with effect from 13th Karkadagam 1094, on which date I completed one year of service.
